Special Caregiving Video Presentation, Discussion at Kingman Senior Center

Newton, Kan. – A video presentation and discussion with Joan Brubacher, LSCSW, of Prairie View will take place March 17 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in the Kingman Senior Center, 305 N. Cedar.

The video, titled “The Grit and Grace of Caregiving,” will take place after the health screenings, which are scheduled from 7 to 9:30 a.m.

Brubacher will answer questions and address concerns associated with being a family caregiver.

For more information, call Brubacher at 316-284-6400 or 800-362-0180. Registration is not necessary.

This meeting is for caregivers only. No onsite caregiving will be available.

This program is sponsored by Prairie View and Kingman County Council on Aging.

Prairie View is a private behavioral and mental health services provider, offering a complete range of behavioral and psychiatric services for children, adolescents, adults and older adults, as well as consultation services to businesses and organizations. In addition to the main campus, including outpatient offices and a psychiatric hospital in Newton, Prairie View has outpatient locations in Hillsboro, Hutchinson, McPherson and Wichita.
